

NEW YORK, NY– June 16, 2010 – Preparing for the GMAT® exam just got a lot easier! For over 200,000 young professionals worldwide who sit annually for the exam – a pre-requisite for entry to competitive MBA programs – having a mobile application (an App) study tool is very welcomed.

The Crimson Oak GMAT Test Prep App
is the first GMAT® study tool on the BlackBerry® platform.

The Crimson Oak GMAT Test Prep App features a deep bank of over 250 questions; scoring strategies and support via a dedicated Facebook forum.

The App is compatible with all BlackBerry® phones with an operating system (OS) 4.5 or higher.

The App is available for download on http://CrimsonOakAcademy.com/apps/GMAT_for_blackberry and on the official App store for BlackBerry®:
